"I am thrilled to embark on a 3-hour musical journey through South Indian Film Music with my U.S. fans," shares Sid Sriram. "Together with my talented band, we will bring to life all the beloved hits from your favorite Indian movies, creating an immersive experience brimming with dynamic arcs and magnetic energy. This journey is fueled by my passion for music, a transformative force that touches hearts, shapes the world, and allows us to share boundless love."

Born in Chennai, India, Sid Sriram's musical journey began at an early age, with the influence of his mother, a Carnatic music guru. His upbringing in both Indian and American cultures paved the way for a unique musical expression that effortlessly blends elements of Indian classical music with Western influences like R&B, pop, and electronic genres.

Sid Sriram gained widespread recognition with his debut song "Adiye" from the Tamil film "Kadal" in 2013, setting the stage for a remarkable career in the Indian film industry. His soulful voice and exceptional talent have led him to collaborate with acclaimed Indian Film composers like the legendary musical maestro A.R. Rahman, and Devi Sri Prasad among others, and American indie heavy hitters like Justin Vernon who composed music for artists like Kanye West, Eminem, James Blake, The Flaming Lips and Avicii.

As a multiple Filmfare Award winner in the Tamil and Telugu film industries, Sid Sriram's accolades serve as a testament to his mesmerizing performances, outstanding vocal prowess and his innate talent having achieved great success at such a young age. Notable among his achievements are the Best Male Playback Singer award in 2016 for the soul-stirring "Ennodu Nee Irundhaal" from "I," and the Best Playback Singer accolade in 2019 for the heartwarming track "Hey Penne" from "Pyaar Prema Kaadhal" in the Tamil Film Industry. In the Telugu film industry, he was recognized as the Best Playback Singer in 2019 for the chart-topping hit "Inkem Inkem
