

Houston Rockets and Toyota Center Announce Partnership With DailyPay

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, August 22, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Houston Rockets and Toyota Center today announced they have entered into a long-term partnership with DailyPay, an industry-leading on-demand provider.

In addition, DailyPay will become the presenting partner of an Employee of the Month recognition program which will reward Rockets and Toyota Center event employees. DailyPay will also support and enhance the organization's annual employee celebration for event night staff along with other rewards initiatives and will be designated as the official 'On-Demand Pay Partner' for the Houston Rockets and Toyota Center.

"We are excited to partner with DailyPay to offer their innovative benefits and pay solutions to our employees," said Rockets President of Business Operations Gretchen Sheirr. "This collaboration is focused on empowering and recognizing our staff members who work hard to provide best-in-class experiences to our fans and customers at every Rockets game and Toyota Center event."

"We are proud to support forward-thinking employers such as the Houston Rockets and Toyota Center in continuing their efforts to provide meaningful and impactful benefits for their valued employees," said Lauren Mandel, Senior Director, Brand Marketing, DailyPay.

By offering DailyPay to Houston Rockets and Toyota Center as part of their financial wellness benefits package, staff will have voluntary access to their pay as it is earned. This allows employees the flexibility to pay bills, spend, save and invest on their own schedule while eliminating the need to rely on traditional scheduled paydays.

This partnership was made possible through DailyPay's collaboration with Oak View Group (OVG), the global venue development, advisory, and investment company for the sports and live entertainment industries. OVG Global Partnerships initiated this deal on behalf of Toyota Center and the Rockets.

About the Houston Rockets

On Oct. 6, 2017, Tilman J. Fertitta assumed ownership of Clutch City Sports & Entertainment, which encompasses the National Basketball Association's Houston Rockets and the Toyota Center venue in Houston. The Rockets, who are approaching their 57th season as an NBA franchise, moved from San Diego to Houston in 1971. Houston won back-to-back championships in 1993-94 and 1994-95 and is one of six NBA franchises to have accomplished that feat. Through the Clutch City Foundation, the Rockets strive to provide hope, help, and inspiration for those who might otherwise be forgotten. For more information, please visit www.rockets.com.
