CHEYENNE, WYOMING, USA, August 22, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- It's almost time for New Frontier's exciting 2023 auction of Old West and Native artifacts, which will take place on Saturday, August 26 in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Even if you can't personally make it to the auction -- which is a highlight of New Frontier's August 25-27 Western Collectibles Show at the Laramie County Event Center at Archer -- you can still bid absentee or live online from anywhere via LiveAuctioneers.

Cree beaded pad saddle, gorgeous floral pattern in many bold colors of beads. Estimate $1,600-$2,500

With only a few days remaining till the auction starts, here are five lots that are lassoing their fair share of pre-auction interest and early bids:

The Deer Lodge prison bridle is a fantastic and unusually colorful work of art. It was created in a barber pole and geometric hitched design which you just never see.”

Scott Tarbell, Owner, New Frontier Western Show & Auction

1 – An authentic and unbelievably beautiful Cree beaded pad saddle with a gorgeous floral pattern in many bold colors of beads, and beaded tassels. Canvas pad and leather rigging strap. Estimate: $1,600-$2,500

2 – A circa-1880 Eastern Sioux (Northern Plains) pipe tomahawk with a forged-steel pipe head, etched thunderbird blade, inlaid bowl, and stamped lead top. Its burlwood haft is inlaid with multiple decorations – a brass duck, rings and a crescent moon – and is capped with contours in the shape of a bird's head. Estimate: $7,500-

$12,500

3 – A very scarce Deer Lodge (Montana State Prison) bridle with pink and green background and seven other colors, never-seen barber pole and geometric hitched design, accented by 12 dazzling tassels. Estimate $4,500-$6,500

4 – Double-mounted spurs with inlaid snake motif surrounded by domes, elongated shanks, feathered rowels and original straps. Estimate $1,800-$2,500

5 – A show-stopping late-1890s Sioux buckskin war shirt decorated with pony beads, trimmed with fringe and accented by uncommon trade-cloth trim. Estimate $4,500-$6,500

New Frontier's Saturday, Aug. 26, 2023 auction will start at 2pm MT/4pm ET. Preview in person at the Cheyenne Firearms & Western Collectibles Show on Friday, Aug. 25 from noon-5pm and Aug. 26 from 9-2 (local time), or online.
