

The Gateway Institute Website Refresh To Reflect Rapid Growth & Expansion

The new website highlights its unique 3-week OCD program and growing presence across locations.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 22, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a stride to enhance accessibility and patient care, The Gateway Institute, an industry leader in treating obsessive compulsive disorder and other co-morbid conditions associated with anxiety, proudly announces the launch of its rejuvenated website. The refresh comes amidst the institute's significant expansion, boasting centers in Costa Mesa, CA, San Francisco, CA, and Scottsdale, Arizona. Additionally, plans are underway to possibly introduce a fourth treatment center in the Pacific Northwest, showcasing the institute's burgeoning presence in the field of OCD and anxiety disorder treatments.

The new website promises a streamlined user experience, making vital resources, support, and information effortlessly accessible to individuals and families. "While the business side of the practice has accelerated, the new website and the integrated technology will enable us to operate with greater efficiency, ensuring a superior user experience for our visitors," highlighted Jim Sterner, founder of The Gateway Institute.

The Gateway Institute's dedication to impeccable patient care is unequivocal. Offering a unique 3-week OCD intensive treatment program, they ensure that individuals never feel alone on their healing journey. "With 24-hour support and home visits, our mission is to assist clients in obtaining a life free from OCD and other anxiety disorders. Whether choosing our 3-week intensive or our weekly program, we are committed to each individual at every stage of treatment," emphasized Jim Sterner.

Reflecting on the growth of The Gateway Institute, another spokesperson shared, "As Gateway has sustained its remarkable growth, our licensed therapists have expanded across all three of our locations, catering to the demand for our unparalleled counseling services." This assertive expansion affirms the faith and trust that countless patients and families have instilled in their offerings.

With the unveiling of the new website, The Gateway Institute not only marks a brand evolution but extends a welcoming hand to those grappling with OCD and associated disorders. The platform elucidates the myriad of services offered – from individualized care plans, home visits, and the unparalleled 6-week After-Care program to their round-the-clock support, standing as an unwavering pillar of support for those in dire need.

The impending establishment of their center in the Pacific Northwest is yet another milestone in their mission, signifying their resolve to reach and assist a broader spectrum of individuals.
