

Tiffany Joins Philly's Ladies Who Rock 4 A Cause Music Festival with Sharon Lia Band, ROZES, Helen and Terry, & more

The Music Festival is a fundraiser that helps women facing sudden crises. This year, the festival aims to impact the lives of twenty women.

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, August 23, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Ladies Who Rock 4 A Cause® Foundation is proud to announce its 6th annual music festival will be held in North East Philly, PA, on September 9, 2023, at Cannstatter V.V. on Academy Rd., starting at 12:00 pm (EST).

The event embodies the unifying force of music to support women facing sudden crises. The 2023 Ladies Who Rock 4 A Cause® Music Festival will showcase performances by artists including Tiffany, ROZES, Sharon Lia Band, and others, promising an all-female-fronted, purpose-driven event.

Founder and CEO of Ladies Who Rock 4 A Cause®, Sharon Lia, a Grammy® Voting member, and acclaimed singer/songwriter/musician, believes fervently in the healing influence of music.

Having triumphed over personal trials, including the loss of a sibling, breast cancer, brain injury, and more, Lia established the organization in 2015 during her battle with breast cancer. Her vision aims to guide women through adversity toward their true potential, instilling hope where it seems scarce. "This narrative reflects triumph propelled by the unifying strength of music," Lia states.

Attendees can indulge in the Pink Carpet Experience®, explore the Ladies Who Rock Pop-Up Rock-Shop®, patronize artisan vendors, and partake in the VIP Experience.
