ABOUT

Primo Banks, whose birth name is Darryl Braceful, stands as an accomplished entrepreneur and talented songwriter. The artist's birthplace is San Antonio, Texas, with his birthdate being November 29th, 1994, although he was raised in St. Louis. Both of his parents were entrepreneurs as well, overseeing a restaurant that they named after their son, Darryl. However, Darryl's ambitions veered away from running the restaurant, as his true aspiration lay in becoming a songwriter and rapper.

Determined to flourish as a vocalist, Darryl commenced his singing practice at the tender age of 9. During his time at MCcluer South Berkeley High School, he formed a rap ensemble called 'Trail Team' alongside his friends, and the group garnered considerable attention. Regrettably, upon graduation, the group members dispersed, each venturing onto distinct paths. This juncture brought about a series of challenges for Darryl, including the tragic loss of his close friend Swagg Huncho from the well-known rap group "3 Problems" due to gun violence. Simultaneously, he faced the loss of his job and car, all within the same timeframe. In response to these trials, Primo Banks took the initiative to establish his own music label known as Hell Raiser Entertainment, beginning a fascinating journey!
