Sometimes, we'll encounter a person who unfortunately sells their classic car for less than it's worth.”

Douglas Berry

"Sometimes, we'll encounter a person who unfortunately sells their classic car for less than it's worth," explained Douglas Berry, founder of Dusty Cars. "We have a passion for classic cars, and our expertise in appraising, restoring, and reselling shows it. We respect the sellers and won't insult them with unreasonable offers. We work hard as the top classic car buyer in California, especially when it comes to classic Jaguars."

Dusty Cars' newly updated page on the worth of a classic vehicle is available at <https://dustycars.com/what-is-it-worth/>. The company can provide a professional value assessment and cash offer for classic cars such as a 1960's Jaguar (<https://dustycars.com/makes/jaguar/>), Porsche, and Mercedes-Benz.

Dusty Cars updated page offers a five-step process for the best way to sell a classic car:

1. Identify the year, make, and model.
2. Evaluate the Condition
3. Consider the Mileage
4. Examine modifications and upgrades
5. Seek professional appraisal

Persons ready to sell a classic car such as a Jaguar E-Type can contact the team for support. Dusty Cars can evaluate various vintage autos from the 1950s to the 1990s. Popular brands include classic luxury sports cars like the Jaguar E-Type and Porsche. Individuals interested in the Porsche brand, including Porsche 911, Turbo, and Coupe, can review the brand-specific page

OWNERS OF 1960'S JAGUAR E-TYPE CAN FIND THE FAIR VALUE AND RECEIVE A QUICK CASH OFFER

Here is the background on this release. The owner of a classic Jaguar such as an E-Type may need more time to research the value and find a respectable buyer to pay a fair price. If an individual settles for selling a vintage luxury sports car to a novice classic car dealer, it could result in regret. It may be a problem for an estate executor responsible for acquiring the best price for a car such as a 1960s Jaguar E-Type. The new content provides an online mechanism for taking the first step to determine what a 1960s Jaguar E-Type vehicle is worth.
