Global Hunting Safaris was conceived to fulfill the growing demand for high-quality hunting experiences on continents beyond Africa. Stemming from the success of Discount African Hunts, extending exceptional hunting opportunities to clients worldwide, a strategic decision was made in February 2022 to create two distinct entities – Discount African Hunts for African adventures and Global Hunting Safaris for ventures across other continents.

John Martins, a seasoned hunter and industry stalwart from Palm Harbor, Florida, is behind Global Hunting Safaris's helm. Not only is John the driving force behind the success of Discount African Hunts, but he also brings a lifetime of hunting experience across five continents, having conquered over 100 of the world's most coveted trophy species.

John's affiliation with esteemed organizations such as the NRA, Dallas Safari Club, Safari Club International, and the Professional Hunters Association of South Africa further highlights his dedication to the hunting community.

With more than 40 international safaris in the last decade, his intimate knowledge of global hunting nuances ensures that your journey with Global Hunting Safaris is guided by expertise honed through years of personal exploration.

John added, "We take great pride in our meticulous outfitter selection process. Our goal is to create a synergy between thrilling hunting experiences and sustainable practices that safeguard the delicate balance of our natural world."

The company seeks to empower its customers with seamless planning, impeccable service, and access to the most sought-after hunting destinations on the planet.
