In a formal announcement, Dr. Randy Gibb, Dean of the Colangelo College of Business, commended Cheryl Guz's dedication to her students, noting her unique and engaging teaching style that captures students' attention and fosters their learning. Ms. Guz's approachability, combined with her high standards and positive support, sets a shining example for both her peers and her students.

The Dean of Colangelo College of Business at Grand Canyon University, Dr. Gibb remarked on Ms. Guz's commitment and exceptional work: "Our students deserve faculty who are committed, dedicated, and strive for student success. I want you to know that the Colangelo College of Business appreciates all you do for our students. Thank you for exhibiting The Gold Standard Mr. Colangelo represents. Your exceptional work is valued and your service is greatly appreciated."

Additionally, Team Lead, David Blackledge commented: ""Not only is she receiving top EOCS scores from the students this semester, but Cheryl Guz's remarkable commitment to student success embodies the ethos of Grand Canyon University's Colangelo College of Business. By receiving this prestigious award, she not only upholds the Gold Standard set by Mr. Colangelo but also reinforces the institution's values of dedication, professionalism, and unwavering service.

In response to the accolade, Ms. Guz expressed her gratitude for the recognition and affirmed her commitment to continue serving as a guiding force for her students. "I am truly humbled to receive this recognition. The gratification I experience from seeing my students succeed far outweighs any accolade. I firmly believe that educators play a critical role in shaping the future, and my dedication to fostering a conducive learning environment remains resolute. This award reinforces my commitment to continue striving for my students' success and maintaining the Gold Standard that Mr. Colangelo set."

The Grand Canyon University community congratulated Cheryl Guz for her well-deserved recognition as the Outstanding Adjunct Traditional Faculty of the Semester. Her contributions enrich the educational experience for all students, aligning with the institution's commitment to fostering knowledge, integrity, and success.
