

AMMWECE Executive Board Attends the IRF Religious Freedom Event in Los Angeles

WASHINGTON DC, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, UNITED STATES, August 27, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- American Muslim & Multifaith Women's Empowerment Council, AMMWECE, executive board attended IRF Religious Freedom Summit in Los Angeles Los Angeles, on August 24th, 2023.

The executive board members, Aisha Bajwa and Zeba Zebunessa, participated in the IRF LA summit and joined the icons of religious freedom, Ambassador Sam Brownback and President Lantos Foundation, Dr. Katrina Swett Lantos. During the summit, the AMMWECE representatives met with Mr. Peter Burns, executive director of the IRF Summit, and other visiting IRF members and partner organizations and discussed crucial matters pertaining to religious freedom and interfaith harmony.

AMMWECE board shared the efforts of their organization in supporting the Christian Pakistanis. Along with a condemnation of the recent attacks on churches and the Christian community in Jaranwala, Pakistan, AMMWECE has supported vigils and Pakistan Roundtables members have been active in helping the Christians of Jaranwala get their lives back.

Aisha Bajwa firmly expressed, "We stand with our Christian brothers and sisters in Pakistan during this critical moment. We are encouraged by the strong condemnation of these attacks from both the Prime Minister and the President of Pakistan."

In a conversation with Ambassador Sam Brownback, Aisha Bajwa and Zeba Zebunessa assured him that AMMWECE would advocate for religious freedom and interfaith harmony for everyone everywhere. Ambassador Sam Brownback commented on the potential of Pakistan as a great country laden with opportunities. He reiterated the importance of collective efforts, a resolute resolve, and unified voices for the well-being of everyone across the globe.
