fueled our success," he added.

Shafi further posted, "While we celebrate this milestone, our journey toward innovation and impact in the space continues with renewed vigor. The future holds great promise, and I am excited to keep pushing boundaries alongside this exceptional team."

"Top-Tier Service"

"SIO Logistics remains dedicated to delivering top-tier service and ensuring utmost customer contentment. The attainment owes itself to the unwavering efforts and loyalty of our team. We take great pride in the acknowledgment," expressed Cody Brown, Chief Operating Officer of SIO Logistics.

"Committed to excellence in service and unwavering customer satisfaction, SIO Logistics is proud to announce this noteworthy achievement," he added.

"Building Future"

"Running a business has only gotten harder since the end of the pandemic," says Inc. editor-in-chief Scott Omelianuk.

"To make the Inc. 5000—with the fast growth that requires—is truly an accomplishment. Inc. is thrilled to honor the companies that are building our future."

The Inc. 5000 class of 2023 represents companies that have driven rapid revenue growth while navigating inflationary pressure, the rising costs of capital, and seemingly intractable hiring challenges.

In all, this year's Inc. 5000 companies have added 1,187,266 jobs to the economy over the past three years.

More about Inc. and the Inc. 5000's Methodology

Companies on the 2023 Inc. 5000 are ranked according to percentage revenue growth from 2019 to 2022. To qualify, companies must have been founded and generating revenue by March 31, 2019.

They must be U.S.-based, privately held, for-profit, and independent—not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies—as of December 31, 2022. (Since then, some on the list may have gone public or been acquired.) The minimum revenue required for 2019 is $100,000; the minimum for 2022 is $2 million.

As always, Inc. reserves the right to decline applicants for subjective reasons. Growth rates used to determine company rankings were calculated to four decimal places.
