BURTONSVILLE, MARYLAND, UNITED STATES , August 31, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Maryland-based life science consulting firm, Facility Logix LLC, has announced the redesign of the company website, <https://flgx.com>, reflecting the firm's rapid growth in the innovation sector. Growth also earned the company a ranking in the 2023 Inc. 5000 list of the nation's fastest - growing private companies, the second consecutive year Facility Logix has made the Inc.

list. The company's unique expertise positions it to provide a comprehensive scope of services at the intersection of real estate and science and tech, including owner's representation, facilities planning and project management; it is also a critical resource for strategy, market analyses and business development for research and higher education institutions and economic development organizations.

"The science and tech sector is flourishing, and by providing targeted, specialized support for a wide range of clients and projects, Facility Logix is thriving within the innovation ecosystem," according to President and CEO Patricia Larrabee, who founded the firm in 2004. In making the announcement, Larrabee noted that in 2022-2023, 59% of Facility Logix business came from repeat clients. "Clients have learned they can rely on our team to deliver effective real - world solutions that allow them to keep their focus on their important work," she said. Larrabee also noted that while clients are well aware of Facility Logix quality, a web redesign was needed to better communicate the company's expansive and diverse range of capabilities and to connect prospective and current clients to needed services. In addition to a concise explanation of those services, the new design includes case studies and client testimonials, incorporating video and
