Definition:

An SEO audit service involves a comprehensive evaluation of a website's search engine optimization (SEO) performance and overall online presence. The goal of an SEO audit is to identify strengths, weaknesses, and opportunities for improvement to enhance a website's visibility, rankings, and organic traffic in search engine results. SEO audits are typically conducted by experienced professionals or agencies with expertise in search engine optimization. An SEO audit helps website owners and businesses understand their current SEO status and provides actionable insights for optimizing their online presence. It's important to note that SEO is an ongoing process, and regular audits are essential to stay competitive and adapt to evolving search engine algorithms and user behavior.
