NEW YORK, NY, USA, August 30, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Ice-T and Coco hosted the Barbie and Ken Pink Rose Soiree Charity Event produced by renowned philanthropist Richie Hosein. The event on Saturday August 26th, 2023 was held at The Bentley Hotel in Southampton, New York. Sponsorship proceeds benefited Smiles Through Cars Charity, a non-for-profit organization, whose dedicated volunteers use the unusual combination of superhero costumes and exotic cars to bring smiles to the faces of sick and underserved children during times of despair.

The founder of Smiles Through Cars and Great Neck, NY resident Josh Aryeh has made a name for himself by dressing up as Batman and visiting distressed kids in an array of high-end automobiles thus bringing hope to children who are either suffering from disabling illnesses or are underserved. The charity is celebrating 15 years of assisting families in need. Smiles Through Cars has an impressive track record of achievements with an astounding 30,000 visits to children and families in need, $2,000,000 raised and donated, and the garnering of widespread awareness and support.

To set the mood, the 200 guests were greeted by talented YUT violinists and spectacular girls on stilts dressed as Barbie. After arriving, the attendees mingled and sipped delightful Macari Vineyards Rose, enjoyed delicious food provided by Chef Meze of El Turco Hamptons, and watched entertaining performances on the beautiful grounds of The Bentley Hotel.
