

Texas Veteran Security LLC : A Beacon of Support for Veterans in the Workforce

National Award

Recognized for Excellence at The American Legion's National Convention

SAN ANTONIO, TX, UNITED STATES, August 30, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 2022 Employer of the Year and Employment Service Award winners were honored on August 26 at The American Legion's 104th National Convention in Charlotte, N.C. Among the distinguished recipients, Texas Veteran Security was awarded the prestigious title of Medium-size Employer of the Year. Gerard Morales, CEO of Texas Veteran Security, was present to accept the well-deserved accolade.

Gerard Morales, a Marine Corps veteran, draws inspiration from his father, a Vietnam-era Marine Corps veteran. Texas Veteran Security was founded with a profound mission: to provide returning veterans with meaningful employment opportunities. Morales emphasized, "Our veterans returning to civilian life need more than just jobs; they need support during their transition and as they navigate their active duty or reserve commitments. Our commitment is to stand by them every step of the way."

The impact of Texas Veteran Security's mission is profound, with veterans finding their footing in law enforcement, border patrol, and other critical roles. Morales takes pride in their role in facilitating these transitions and expressed, "I am immensely proud to contribute to the journey of our fellow brothers and sisters in arms."
