The unforgettable showdown took place at the Boca Black Box theater in Boca Raton, Florida, leaving the audience on the edge of their seats from start to finish.

The evening showcased an unparalleled display of athleticism, grit, and drama, as BRCW's top wrestling superstars locked horns with NWA's finest. The Boca Black Box theater reverberated with the cheers and roars of fans who witnessed epic battles and jaw-dropping moments.

In one of the most anticipated matches of the night, BRCW's Noah Kekoa stepped into the ring against NWA's World Television Champion Thomas Latimer for the NWA World Television Championship. Despite an impressive showing, Noah Kekoa fell short in his bid to capture the title, proving the fierce competition that NWA brings to the table.

Kenzie and Kylie Page, the dynamic duo representing NWA, triumphed over BRCW Women's Champion MJ Jenkins and Ruthie Jay in a thrilling matchup that left the audience in awe. BRCW's Cha Cha Charlie danced his way to victory against NWA's Joe Alonzo, further solidifying his status as a beloved fan-favorite.

BRCW Champion Lakay defended his title against Jamie Stanley, and in an extraordinary display of dominance, BRCW ALL STAR Champion Mark Long decimated his opponent Silas Mason.

NWA World Junior Heavyweight Champion Kerry Morton showcased his skill by defeating Alan S2S Martinez, setting the stage for an intense rematch between Alan and Neil "the Heel" Glazier for the BRCW Cruiserweight Championship. Neil "the Heel" Glazier, the longest reigning Cruiserweight in BRCW history, faces a formidable challenge from Alan in their upcoming clash. But he has an ace up his sleeve the giant Cezar Bonini.

The audience erupted as NWA's Crockett Cup Winners Mike Knox and Trevor Murdoch triumphed over the Island Kings, led by Sean Maluta. The night concluded with a monumental victory for former WWE/NXT Superstar Bull James and WWE Legend Gangrel, who defeated NWA's Jack Talos and Daisy Kill in a thrilling tag-team matchup.

The collaboration between BRCW owner Matthew Maschler and NWA owner Billy Corgan was an immediate success and we hope it leads to bigger and better things.
