"It's with immense gratitude as we extend our heartfelt thanks for joining us at HFAS x Café Melo Harlem Summer Arts Series opening photography reception of Harlem Clicks: A Fusion of Art and Community Energy" at Café Melo Gallery, 442 Union Avenue. Your presence at this event is a true honor. We are a sacred space where vulnerability and connection flourishes. Also, giving a special shout out to Artist/ Cultural Curator, Robert L. Weems III.

We are indebted to each and every one of you who joined us with your presence, bringing your unique energy and spirit to the workshop. Your enthusiasm and engagement created an atmosphere of shared understanding and appreciation for the powerful works of Sekou Luke, Jennifer L. Gonzalez and Michael Petrez.

"In this safe space we created together, we were able to witness the transformative power of art. The collaborative process has cultivated the essence of Harlem, the vibrant mosaic of Harlem and the rich tapestry of its community. We thank you for your love, presence and artists brought forth spaces that resonated deeply within all."

We also commended each individual who embraced the
