

Southern Cross Service Dogs Welcomes 18-Year MLB Veteran Johnny Damon to Board of Directors

MLB veteran Johnny Damon joins Southern Cross Service Dogs' Board of Directors as Advisory Board Member to help provide service dogs to veterans in need.

WINTER GARDEN, FLORIDA, USA, March 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Southern Cross Service Dogs is thrilled to announce the addition of 18-year MLB veteran Johnny Damon to its Board of Directors as an Advisory Board Member. Damon's addition marks a significant milestone for Southern Cross Service Dogs, which has been committed to training and providing service dogs to assist individuals, particularly American veterans.

I'm honored to join Southern Cross Service Dogs. Our shared mission to support veterans through the companionship of service dogs is close to my heart. Together, we can make a real impact.”

Johnny Damon

Johnny Damon is widely recognized for his successful career in Major League Baseball, boasting achievements like winning World Series rings with both the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees. However, his philanthropic endeavors are equally noteworthy. He established the Johnny Damon Foundation, a not-for-profit organization committed to supporting American veterans and providing opportunities for disadvantaged children at risk.

"With Johnny's incredible history of philanthropy, especially his well-known support for American veterans through the Johnny Damon Foundation, we are excited about the experience and enthusiasm he brings to our board," says Matthew Krug, Co-Founder and Executive Director of Southern Cross Service Dogs.

As an Advisory Board Member, Damon will contribute his unique insights, vast network, and dedication to philanthropy to help Southern Cross Service Dogs expand its reach, strengthen fundraising initiatives, and further support veterans and their families.
