

Fang Wang Completes YHSGR POWER BUYER Agent Certification Training, Offering Game-Changing Benefits to VIP Buyers

ROSEMEAD, CA, UNITED STATES, August 31, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fang Wang, a seasoned real estate professional, has recently achieved certification in the YHSGR POWER BUYER Agent program, unlocking a new level of power and flexibility for their VIP buyers. With this certification, Fang Wang can now offer an array of innovative programs designed to transform ordinary buyers into cash buyers, providing them with a significant advantage in today's competitive real estate market.

The YHSGR POWER BUYER Agent program equips Fang Wang with the tools and expertise needed to elevate their clients' home buying experience. One of the standout features of this program is its ability to qualify VIP buyers as cash buyers, enabling them to submit strong cash offers that stand out from the competition. With this certification, Fang Wang can confidently remove loan contingencies and sale contingencies, making their clients' offers more appealing to sellers.

Fang Wang's clients now have access to three distinct YHSGR POWER BUYER programs, each tailored to meet their unique needs:

1. Cash Buy Flex: This program connects clients with one of YHSGR's trusted lenders to secure conditional approval. The program then sets aside a cash amount for the client, which serves as a backup for their loan offer. This flexibility provides added confidence to clients and makes their offers more competitive.
2. Cash Buy Reserve: After obtaining conditional underwritten approval, the Power Buyer program can purchase the home on behalf of the buyer. This unique approach allows buyers to move into their new home immediately after closing, effectively making it a true cash offer. Buyers repay the program after their loan approval, simplifying the buying process.
3. Buy Before Sell Program: For clients who need to sell their current home to secure a loan, this program offers a tailored solution. Clients have 14 days to list their current home after closing on their new one and 60 days to secure a contract. This program streamlines the transition from one home to another, ensuring a smooth and stress-free process.

Fang Wang's achievement in completing the YHSGR POWER BUYER Agent Certification training underscores their commitment to providing clients with unparalleled advantages in today's competitive real estate market. With these powerful programs at their disposal, Fang Wang is poised to help clients achieve their homeownership dreams with greater ease and success. "Our YHSGR Advantage and YHSGR Power Buyer programs are game-changers in the real estate industry. These programs empower our clients with unique advantages that set them apart in today's competitive market.
