About Glass Arts Collective – A local small business bringing classes in fused glass, stained glass, and mosaic to the community. With an Open Studio program for those artists that have the skills and need a place to be creative in a warm bright environment.

A gift shop of handcrafted art created by the Open Studio members. Most are unknown and have no place to showcase their fantastic talents. We have created this Art of the Month to bring Glass Art techniques and unique qualities to the area. This is different from glass blowing which is more well known on TV, and in galleries.
