ATELIER Playa Mujeres "All Suites Luxury Resort," operated by ADH - ATELIER de Hoteles, the Mexican hotel chain renowned for its innovative concept of Handcrafted Hospitality®, has announced that it has once again received the "Mexico's Leading Conference Hotel" award presented annually by the World Travel Awards organization.

ATELIER Playa Mujeres

We're immensely proud to receive the 'Mexico's Leading Conference Hotel' award for the third year in a row. This recognition holds significance as it celebrates the services of our Convention Center.”

Mascia Nadin, Chief Operating Officer of ADH - ATELIER de Hoteles.

These awards aim to recognize the preferred companies in the travel and tourism industry. The methodology is based on the votes of customers, the public, and events and conference planning experts. These votes are cast in favor of companies that offer services or products with exceptional quality standards.

In this manner, the exceptional facilities of ATELIER Playa Mujeres and its 2,836 sqm Convention Center, boasting six multifunctional halls, stand out as the ideal setting for high-level events.

The resort's concept, "Weddings Hechas a Mano®," certified by the Association of Independent Wedding and

Professional Event Coordinators (ACIBEP) and Wedding Planners Institute of Canada Certified, their team of Arteleros backed by Certified Meeting Specialist, along with its selection of 20 event venues and catering service designed by chefs recognized by Vatel Club Mexico, are once again awarded for their warmth, comfort, and functionality.

ATELIER Playa Mujeres continues solidifying its position as a paragon of excellence in the all-inclusive ultra-luxury hotel market. The resort provides a sophisticated experience enriched by Mexican art, only surpassed by the incredible natural beauty of the Caribbean Sea.
