

BLK Women Equal Pay Day Conference Offers Valuable Career Advice, Opportunities for Black Women

This one-day mini-conference was created by Fem Equity in partnership with GET Cities and takes place September 22, 2023, at FastForwardU in Baltimore, MD.

BALTIMORE, MD, USA, August 31, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GET Cities is excited to announce their partnership with Fem Equity for the BLK Women Equal Pay Day Conference. This one-day, public event is a jam-packed affair for Black women and other women of color who are early in their career, ready to scale their career, and/or changing careers. Programming will include interactive workshops, expert panel discussions, and networking opportunities.

According to 2022 data, Black women typically make only 67 cents for every dollar paid to white, non-Hispanic men. The BLK Women Equal Pay Day Conference was designed to directly address this disparity and will offer women of color valuable information on a range of relevant topics, including how to advocate for equal pay for themselves; how to scale and advance their careers; and innovating their way through a power career.

"This experience is designed to support and expand your network, challenge your comfort zone on your possibilities, and make you aware of opportunities you didn't know were in reach," says Adeola Ajani, founder of Fem Equity. "BLK Women Equal Pay Day Conference is a space where black and brown women have a seat at the table and are encouraged to speak up and gain the resources needed to soar because I know we are limitless and we need more spaces to showcase that."
