Cuban Restaurant invite you to celebrate Hispanic Heritage month and experience diversity in art, food, and music at the Mount Dora Viva La Frida Festival on September 30 from 11am to 8pm in Donnelly Park located at 530 N Donnelly St, Mt Dora, FL 32757.

MDCA's Executive Director Janet Gamache says "Viva La Frida celebrates the rich and diverse Hispanic culture right here in our area. We want people to come and recognize the contributions of American citizens whose ancestors came from Central and South America, Spain, Mexico, and the Caribbean. Each area brings its own unique flavor in art, music, and food. We invite everyone to come and enjoy a taste."

A diverse line up of musical performances from Latin Jazz to Rock to Cuban Afro Funk will take the stage all day long.

Gamache says, "The event will also highlight some great partnerships in the art community. We are proud to host Orlando Opera who will perform some pieces from their upcoming production of 'Frida.' We also have No Borders Art Competition who will run a fast-paced drawing contest on stage and local artist PJ Svejda of Studio Art Farm will paint a mural on site for guests to watch
