

New Music That Strikes a Chord with Society: Lawrence Qualls to Release "Point Of View" on September 1st

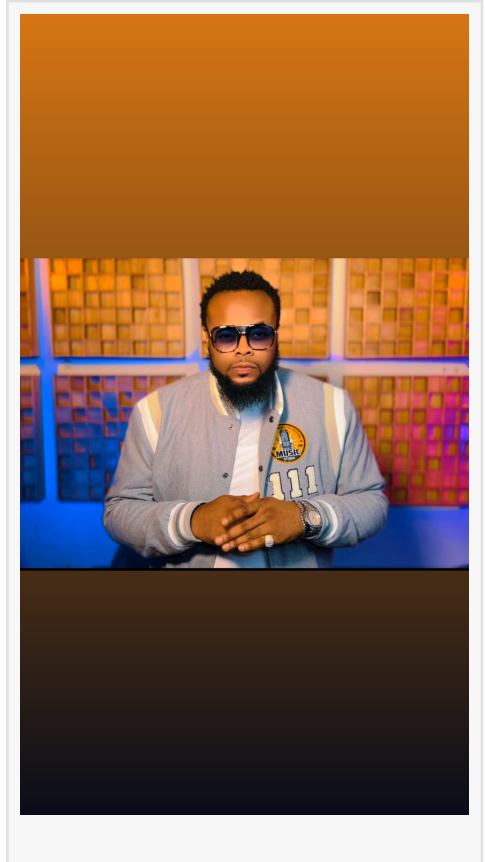

Renowned drummer, music producer, and composer Lawrence Qualls is set to unveil his latest musical creation, "Point Of View," on September 1, 2023

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, September 1, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned drummer, music producer, and composer Lawrence Qualls is set to unveil his latest musical creation, "Point Of View," on September 1, 2023. With an impressive career that spans collaborations with top-tier artists like Mariah Carey and his composition featured in the acclaimed film "Chaaw," Lawrence continues to make waves as an independent jazz music artist, pushing boundaries and expanding his artistic reach.

"Point Of View" is more than just a song; it's a timepiece that encapsulates the essence of our current societal landscape. Drawing inspiration from the world's experiences and crises, Lawrence Qualls channels his emotions into a harmonious masterpiece that resonates with the journey towards equality, love, peace, and freedom. The song stands as a testament to Lawrence's boundless creativity and deep-rooted compassion for humanity.

This modern contemporary jazz composition seamlessly blends elements of both classic and modern jazz, showcasing Lawrence's unique musical perspective. The song's rich melodies and intricate arrangements are brought to life by the collaboration of three exceptionally talented musicians: Chevan Thomas on piano, David Herrera on upright bass, and Riyan EL Magharbel on the oboe.

Lawrence Qualls shared his excitement about the upcoming release, stating, "I composed 'Point Of View' as a reflection on the world around us. Every crisis, every experience, has shaped the emotions that flow through this piece. It's a celebration of optimism, a call for change, and an ode to the unwavering human spirit."

"Point Of View" will be available on all major digital streaming platforms including Spotify, Apple Music, YouTube, and Amazon, starting from September 1, 2023. Music enthusiasts and jazz aficionados alike are invited to experience Lawrence Qualls' latest creation, a harmonious blend of past and present that captures the very essence of our time.
