WEST BLOOMFIELD, MICHIGAN, UNITED STATES , September 4, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Chaldean Cultural Center and Museum is having its 2nd Annual Beth Nahrain Conference for Writers of Mesopotamia. This free half-day conference will be held on Saturday, November 11 from 10 am - 2 pm at the Chaldean Community Foundation in Sterling Heights, Michigan. There will be presentations from poets, novelists, journalists, academics and language researchers on Chaldeans and Mesopotamia.

Last year's conference

The purpose of this conference is to foster a constructive dialogue, enabling us to delve into the rich history, current realities, and future prospects of the Chaldean community.”

Weam Namou

The CCC has once again organized this half-day conference for writers of Mesopotamian ancestry to meet and present their work to the public. The conference will be held in-person with a possible online option.

The name of the conference is inspired by the Aramaic phrase that means “between two rivers,” Beth Nahrain. This name designates the region around the Euphrates and Tigris rivers in Mesopotamia.

The featured writers include poets, novelists, journalists, academics, and language researchers. Their names and bios will be announced in early October 2023. You can visit our website for updated information <https://www.chaldeanculturalcenter.org/> (Program Page)
