Syosaku Ambassadors

Syosaku-Japan looks forward to embracing passionate individuals wanting to be their aficionados/ambassadors. As an aficionado/ambassador, they will have the opportunity to represent the brand. Another role is to share the company's values and vision. Also, as a representative, Aficionados and Ambassadors should connect with other like-minded people. Unlike other companies, Syosaku doesn't let people fill out forms to apply. Instead, the Syosaku team is the one who looks for deserving candidates. But, anyone can send their intentions through email or through Syosaku's social media pages.

We are grateful to our Aficionados and Ambassadors who represent us in various forums and events. They are the voice of our company and they share our vision and mission with passion and dedication.”

Toshi Sekiya

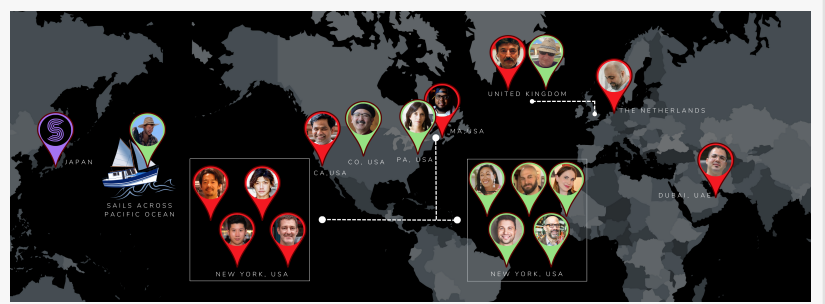

These are the criteria to receive an invitation:

- An aspiring candidate must be a true fan of the Syosaku brand.
- He or she is passionate to speak and stand for Syosaku in any form.
- He or she is approachable and doesn't take the aficionado/ambassador role for granted.
- A high number of followers on social media platforms is a plus point but not required!

Benefits will be given to the chosen official representatives of the company. These benefits are exclusive to Aficionados and Ambassadors alone.

"We are grateful to our Aficionados and Ambassadors who represent us in various forums and events. They are the voice of our company, and they share our vision and mission with passion and dedication. They help us build trust and credibility with our partners and customers. We appreciate their efforts and contributions to our success. They encouraged us to grow our team more, " Toshi Sekiya, owner of Syosaku-Japan, said.
