The Buccaneer Beach & Golf Resort is considered by many to be a historical gem in the U.S. Virgin Islands, boasting a rich history that began in 1653 when Charles Martel, a Knight of Malta, constructed the resort. Over the years, the location has hosted a long list of distinguished guests, including world-class athletes, famous A-list actors and musicians, and esteemed public servants.

Kay noted her excitement over the new endeavor, commenting that she is “truly honored” to represent The Buccaneer Beach & Golf Resort, an iconic destination that embodies the essence of luxury and history.

“It’s a privilege to contribute to The Buccaneer Beach & Golf Resort’s continued success in the Southeast U.S. market,” said Kay.
