

CoachCare acquires WebCareHealth

Acquisition supports remote patient monitoring company's continued growth and expansion into new specialties

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, September 5, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- CoachCare, a leading remote patient monitoring (RPM) and virtual health company, has acquired Des Moines, Iowa, based RPM company WebCareHealth, for an undisclosed amount. The acquisition represents CoachCare's third acquisition in eight months.

Founded in 2013, WebCareHealth's expertise will add unique at-home international normalized ratio (INR) blood testing and monitoring capabilities to CoachCare's suite of RPM, chronic care management and other services.

One of the fastest growing digital health offerings, by 2027, worldwide RPM growth could rise from \$53.6B to \$175.2B - with factors like the growing older adult population and the monitoring of specialized medicine to patients in between physician office visits.

"Healthcare providers increasingly look for patient monitoring solutions that provide care options for all types of patients. CoachCare continues to add capabilities that benefit more patients being treated for a variety of conditions. WebCareHealth has demonstrated a unique specialty in cardiology and pain management," said Wes Haydon, co-founder and president of CoachCare. "Its impressive team, led by Dr. Teresa Sieck, and client roster accelerates CoachCare's expansion into these critical specialties. This transaction supports our objective to rapidly grow revenue both organically and with strategic acquisitions of exceptional businesses such as WebCareHealth. We are pleased to welcome Dr. Sieck and her team."
