

10com Web Development Becomes Number One Rated Web Design Agency In The City Of Chicago, Illinois

Chicago, Illinois – 10com, an award-winning high-volume web design agency that has worked with international brands, such as Adidas, Asics, and Caterpillar, is proud to announce it has recently become the number one rated web design agency in Chicago, Illinois.

With a client-centered focus that has fueled growth and a unique approach where each new website is treated like a blank canvas, 10com has received more than 1,000 5-star reviews across a variety of reputable platforms, making it the number one-rated web design agency in Chicago. This success also extends to 10com's second location in Fort Worth, where the agency maintains its highest-rated position and is currently celebrating the expansion's 1 year anniversary.

A spokesperson for 10com said, "The goal is to empower our clients to be able to manage all the assets we create easily and create a consistent brand experience at multiple touchpoints to help the business achieve a strong foundation in regard to branding. We believe in doing business differently, unlike others in the industry that keep the clients dependent upon the web developer. We empower our clients; they own everything we create for them, and we focus on building a long-term relationship."

To commemorate this impressive achievement and as a thank you to its loyal customers, 10com has recently revamped its 'Business Growth Package' to deliver more value, savings and to provide an option for new businesses needing high-end services, such as logo-branding, content writing, and website design at an affordable rate. The new package additionally includes up to 3 rounds of revisions per page, direct email contact with a dedicated project manager, custom Wix Website Design, built-in search engine optimization (SEO), and much more.
