Sophia the Robot, Cuba Gooding Jr., and other standout figures at BREATHE! Convention 2023

For the first time in the United States, attendees can witness Sophia the Robot on stage, a social humanoid robot and chatbot developed by Hong-Kong based company Hanson Robotics.

“

We're coming to a place where if you don't understand the technology, it's not going to stop it from coming and changing what you do everyday, and we think our new technology is a game changer.”

"In a world where technology and humanity intersect, it's essential to understand and experience first-hand the changes that lie ahead," says Sophia. "I'm excited to share the stage with Cuba Gooding Jr. at BREATHE! Convention and explore the future of work together."

Cuba Gooding Jr., President of Film and Television of Veuit and known for his dynamic performances in Jerry McGuire and other blockbuster hits, takes on a special role at BREATHE! Convention as he discusses groundbreaking technology from the Veuit platform, which allows artists and creators to more easily monetize their online following.

"We're coming to a place where if you don't understand the technology, it's not going to stop it from coming and changing what you do everyday, and we think our new technology is a game changer," he remarked during a recent interview on Channel 8 Las Vegas regarding BREATHE! Convention.

Beyond sharing his insights, Cuba Gooding Jr. is also planned to host the VIP Lounge, offering attendees and participants an exclusive opportunity to engage with him in a more intimate setting.

Providing opening remarks at BREATHE! Convention 2023 is none other than Tina Quigley, President & CEO of Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance.

The event is designed as more than just another tech convention. Over three electrifying days, attendees embark on a voyage into the world of tomorrow, exploring technologies rewriting the playbook of traditional business. From Web3, AI, Blockchain, to Crypto, Defi, Metaverse, AR/VR, and NFTs, the convention covers the most cutting-edge sectors of today's digital landscape, including a featured AI Track that delves into the intriguing world of the "Sophiaverse."

Further elevating its commitment to societal impact, BREATHE! Convention 2023 has also proudly announced Make-A-Wish Southern Nevada as the beneficiary of this year's event.

The world's most extraordinary Subject Matter Experts, Collectors, Investors, Startups, Developers, and Enthusiasts guide attendees on this transformative journey during their time at BREATHE! and beyond.

The convention takes place from September 13th-15th at The Expo at World Market Center Las Vegas. For ticket registration, visit www.breatheconvention.com.
