The goal of Martindale-Hubbell ratings is to help keep the public informed when making the decision to do business with an attorney or law firm. Prior to the 1887 edition of Martindale's American Law Directory, which was the first publication to provide such ratings to attorneys, there was no way of truly knowing if the lawyer you were considering doing business with was trustworthy, ethical, or skilled in the legal field. Today Martindale-Hubbell continues to provide verified ratings for attorneys based not only on their legal ability and ethical standards as judged by their peers, but also based on reviews from their clients.
