FlixSnip, the innovative streaming platform that specializes in short-form content, is excited to announce its groundbreaking partnership with FRANCE 24, the prestigious international news network. This exciting collaboration brings live news and magazines to FlixSnip's free-of-charge app, making it a one-stop platform for both entertainment and current affairs.

Thanks to this new collaboration, FlixSnip users can access FRANCE 24's world-renowned news coverage, including real-time breaking news updates, in-depth analysis, and expert commentary. Furthermore, users will be able to enjoy FRANCE 24's popular magazines, which cover a wide range of topics such as business, technology, fashion, history, and the environment.

"We are thrilled to join forces with FRANCE 24," said Sebastien Perioche CEO of FlixSnip. "This collaboration reflects our commitment to offering a well-rounded content experience to our users. By providing access to live news and magazines, we are creating a platform that not only entertains but also informs, empowering our users with a broader perspective on global events."

FlixSnip's app is available on both iOS and Android devices and is already home to an extensive library of high-quality short-form international content which features mini movies, series, and even scientific docu minis.

FlixSnip's partnership with FRANCE 24 is just the latest example of the platform's dedication to providing its users with the best possible content. FlixSnip's users can now seamlessly transition from enjoying their favorite short films and series to staying informed about the latest developments in global affairs.

The live news and magazine features are available to all FlixSnip users free of charge under the “News & Magazines” headline. Magazines feature: Europe Now, Reporters, People and Profit, Revisited(Life After Headlines), and Fashion.

Overall, this is a significant milestone for both FlixSnip and FRANCE 24, and it is set to have a positive impact on users who are seeking high-quality news and entertainment content.
