

Center City Charlotte's Newest Rooftop Venue Offers a Prime Location for Weddings, Social & Corporate Events & More

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, September 7, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Recently expanded, Rooftop 230 now offers the public its dramatic views of Uptown Charlotte for event bookings. The modernized open-air venue is the first step in the twelve million dollars worth of renovations to Holiday Inn Charlotte Center City. Guests can now enjoy breathtaking scenery and over 7,000 square feet of space.

This newly updated rooftop features exclusive amenities to turn daydreams into reality under the scenic skyline. The diverse event space is ideal for hosting company parties, luncheons, bridal showers, or even dream weddings.

Guests of all ages are offered an intimate surrounding – twinkling bistro lights and vibrant green step-and-repeat walls. From the sleek, upscale décor to the contemporary greenery perfect for photo opportunities, Rooftop 230 provides an outdoor ceremony flow and added enhancements with chairs, couches, and even a bar with stunning city views. All of this is located atop a hotel tower featuring guest accommodations, an on-site restaurant, and a parking garage.

The experience is elevated with mouthwatering cuisine from forchetta, led by award-winning Chef Luca Annunziata. As a Food Network Chopped Champion, he takes pride in every dish he prepares. Rooftop 230 looks forward to hosting many events under the stars!
