Engaging the ecosystem with a human-first mindset is pivotal to enabling Partner trust, empowerment, and delightful experiences. That is the ethos of Vectara's Ecosystem Partnerships program.”

Bader Hamdan

the trusted Generative AI Platform, celebrates and announces today that Bader Hamdan, Vectara Ecosystem Chief, was named as the “Most Inspiring Partner Leader” for 2023 in this year's Catalyst event hosted by Partnership Leaders. This industry peer-voted recognition emphasizes outstanding efforts of high-tech partner ecosystem executives paving the way, motivating the community, and setting the tone for the future of ecosystem partnership strategies and impact.

This distinctive honor comes at the heels of Bader joining Vectara's leadership team in May and the launch of Vectara's Ecosystem Partnerships program.

“Bader's strategic vision and leadership in the ecosystem is vital to Vectara's growth, execution velocity, and market strength,” said Dr. Amr Awadallah, Vectara CEO and Founder. “With our partnerships strategy, Bader is paving the ecosystem charter to deliver on our commitment of empowering developers, product builders, startups, and enterprises to accelerate their time to value and capitalize on GenAI.”

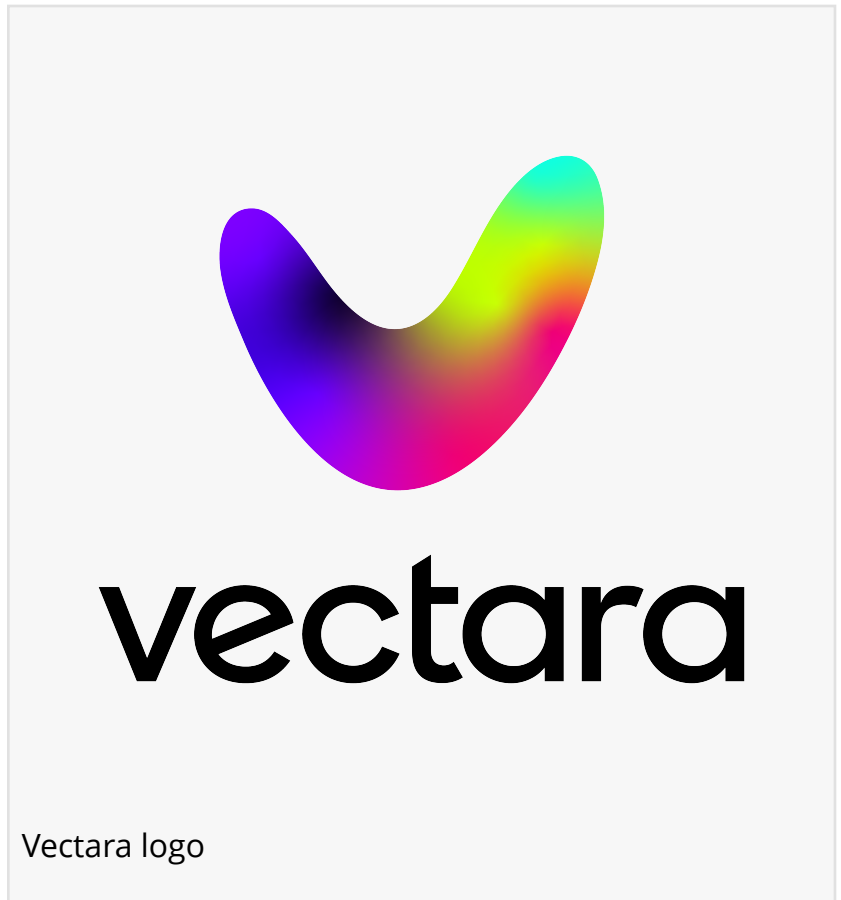

Bader joined Vectara to shape the company's Ecosystem charter and co-build the 'art of possible' in the GenAI Ecosystem. He previously served in various partner leadership capacities at Twilio, Google, and Cisco, and was also recognized as a DE&I Honoree by Channel Futures for his community efforts with underprivileged startups.

“Being chosen and recognized as the Most Inspiring Partner Leader by industry peers is a testament to Bader's motivational impact to the partner ecosystem community,” said Jay McBain, Canalys Chief Analyst and one of the most visible and respected thought leaders in the global channel ecosystem.

“Bader was voted for by the global partnerships community which speaks to his dedication, invaluable contribution, and inspiration to the community worldwide” said Asher Mathew, Partnership Leaders CEO.

Under Bader’s leadership, Vectara reimaged the partnering paradigm and launched its Ecosystem Partnerships program to focus on incubating an Ecosystem of Co-Innovate, Co-Engage, and Co-Influence Partnerships. The program fosters “Better Together” value co-creation and differentiation, and also empowers Startups with the tools and resources to integrate or build atop Vectara’s GenAI Platform.
