times can pave the path to unexpected riches.

When Patti is not sharing moments with her daughters or fulfilling her role as a Risk Manager for an insurance brokerage (previously serving as Vice President of a prominent third-party administrator), she takes the stage to address audiences both large and small. Her message revolves around "The Never-Ending Love," a narrative she knows firsthand. Infused with encouragement, her persona embodies empathy and hope. To those grappling with loss and despair, Patti's words of experience echo, "God specializes in transforming painful pasts."

Residing in New Jersey, Patti Magan has served on her church's Board of Trustees since 2007, a testament to her dedication to community and service.
