

Cross-Strait Youth Innovation Competition Showcases Success of OT Trade's Parkour Team

KAOHSIUNG, TAIWAN, TAIWAN, September 7, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On June 30th, 2023, the call for entries for the Cross-Strait Youth Innovation and Entrepreneurship Competition officially began. This competition aims to provide a platform for innovative and entrepreneurial exchange for youth from both sides of the Taiwan Strait, offering more opportunities and creating greater space for Taiwanese youth to develop in mainland China. It also seeks to build a stage for fulfilling dreams and provide new dynamics for deepening cross-strait integration and constructing a new development pattern.

OT trade Parkour Team Award

Ho-Tsen Chueh, the CEO of OT Trade International Limited, organized an FRMP Monkey Parkour team, whose members include the founder, Serg Abramnikov, who holds a Level 3 Parkour coaching certificate and is one of the world's top parkour coaches. There is also Lu Chia-Ling, the Marketing Director, who is dedicated to promoting the parkour club and participated in this competition, achieving an excellent third prize.

Even the most outstanding individuals need strong support, and they need a team that treats each other sincerely, helps and cooperates with each other.
