MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE, UNITED STATES, September 8, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- On Friday, October 13, 2023, the Maryville Alcoa Animal Rescue Center \(MAARC\) is hosting their largest fundraiser of the year, the second MAARC Masquerade Ball at the historic Capitol Theatre in downtown Maryville, Tennessee, just south of Knoxville.

The event is expected to drive record turnaround for non-profit MAARC, a Maryville-based volunteer-run no-kill animal rescue, which was founded in 2018. Since its inception, MAARC has served approximately 1900 dogs and cats in the Blount County, Tennessee area -- and with an annual operating budget of $250,000.

With games, a plated dinner, entertainment, door prizes, a silent auction and, of course, dogs and cats, the Masquerade Ball is MAARC’s tentpole annual fundraising and community outreach event.

“Everyone has welcomed the opportunity to support our rescue. The event has sold out, and the corporate sponsorships have ensured this event will be a success and we will hit our goal,” said Jennifer Eanes, MAARC Executive Director, expressing her gratitude towards the community’s support and embrace of the organization’s cause to making this year’s MAARC Masquerade Ball a success.

With a fundraising goal of $25,000, the Maryville Alcoa Animal Rescue Center is leveraging ticket sales, corporate sponsorships, a silent auction, private donations, and event-day activities to raise money before, during, and after the Masquerade Ball to sustain MAARC's 2023 operating efforts.

"The anticipated success of this year's event wouldn't be possible without the generous support of our local sponsors," said Eanes. "Maintaining a No Kill initiative is a community effort, and the Knoxville/Maryville area business community has united solidly behind us. The animals thank all of our generous donors and supporters."

Tickets are on sale now for $85 per person or $600 for a table of 8, and can be purchased at MAARC's website until the day of the event.
