

Telecom4Good Makes an Impact on Nonprofits and NGOs

Telecom4Good is a nonprofit organization exclusively dedicated to helping nonprofits and NGOs worldwide find the best prices for high-quality IT solutions

SAN CLEMENTE, CA, USA, September 8, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Telecom4Good, a nonprofit organization exclusively supporting nonprofits and NGOs, is pleased to announce its partnership with Cisco Meraki to provide equipment and licenses at affordable prices to impact nonprofits' missions.

As a nonprofit organization, Telecom4Good understands that IT solutions are among the most significant challenges nonprofits and NGOs can face during operations. IT products and services can be expensive, costing a considerable percentage of the organization's income and taking away from their worthy causes. Telecom4Good is dedicated to providing organizations with the resources and discounts they need to reduce operating costs. Nonprofits and NGOs can expect discounts of 50 percent or more on Cisco Meraki equipment and licensing.

Telecom4Good has worked with hundreds of nonprofits and NGOs, helping them to reduce IT and operational costs to channel more funds to their causes. With their simple three-step process, organizations can find the ideal solutions at the best prices. They assess each organization's unique needs and provide a customized solution that meet those requirements. They can then help the organization remotely implement orders upon delivery. They are a nonprofit resource for IT solutions at unbeatable prices.

Nonprofits and NGOs interested in learning more about Telecom4Good's IT discounts and how it can impact their organization can visit the Telecom4Good website.
