ABOUT

Young Scoe's musical voyage began at a tender age of 8, determined to become a catalyst for change. From humble beginnings, Young Scoe built his own record label, Black Flight Collective, brick by brick. Founded in 2006, the Black Flight Collective represents a creative powerhouse that goes beyond music. Starting in 2006 with Blake Go Wavy, this endeavor has transformed into a powerhouse of creativity.

The artist's journey is not solely about music – he has embraced a multitude of creative outlets. From writing raps and poems to exploring filmmaking, photography, videography, and even fashion design, Young Scoe's music is representative of a multilayered tapestry.
