

Good Greek Moving & Storage Partners with Law Enforcement for Hurricane Relief

Partnership Includes Florida Highway Patrol & More Than a Dozen Other Law Enforcement Agencies for Hurricane Idalia Relief

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA, USA, September 8, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Good Greek Moving & Storage, Florida's Largest Independent Mover and World's First and Only Total Relocation Company, is honored to join forces once again with the Florida Highway Patrol, Global Empowerment Mission, the American Red Cross, a multitude of South Florida law enforcement agencies and Mobile Mike to mobilize relief supplies to Northwest Florida in the aftermath of Hurricane Idalia. Good Greek will have drop off locations throughout Miami-Dade and Broward Counties where people can come and drop off supplies to help our friends up north.

"Helping others isn't just The Good Greek Way, it's an imperative that drives every facet of our business. As we mobilize resources for Hurricane Idalia relief, we carry on a tradition of active community involvement," said Spero Georgedakis, Founder and CEO of Good Greek Relocation Systems. "It's a responsibility we take to heart, and we're committed to delivering more than just supplies to those impacted. We're committed to delivering hope."

When Hurricane Ian struck Southwest Florida last September, Good Greek was there. From trucking in supplies from across the state to working on the ground assisting in the clean-up effort. When flooding ravaged Broward County in April, Good Greek teamed up again with the
