Why does ARTUR offer custom art?

In a mass-produced art world, finding pieces that truly resonate with them can be challenging. Artur connects them with passionate artists who craft one-of-a-kind works from their ideas and emotions.

□ Democratization:

Art has been held hostage like a war chest, its codes of understanding privatized by the financial elites. It's time to democratize the great artistic movements and choose them.

□ Local artists:

Imagine direct dialogue with an artist who understands your vision, co-creating art that speaks to your heart and soul. Artur is more than buying art; it's collaboration.

Color in the core.

□ Fun, Fast & A.I. augmented:

The algorithm they built helps them to discover artists that fit their tastes faster than anything else. During the account creation phase, They'll choose a hat related to their tastes which will help the A. I for showing them the best matches. They can 4 sketches generated by prompt masters to help them define their composition for free.

How does it work?

Step 1: Swipe artwork and click on the heart when they have a crush. Basing their project on the favorite artwork they found, add their colors, ideas, and drama in their project description to make the artist understand what he/she needs to produce.

Step 2: Discover their top artists section, and compare their styles and services. Start a conversation with the artist of their choice.

Choose their reference works and their inspirations to create their custom art piece.
