

Infinite Hospice Launches 24/7 End-of-Life Services in California

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, September 11, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Infinite Hospice has officially launched in Southern California, providing a revolutionary approach to end-of-life care that emphasizes compassionate comfort for patients and their families. The company is dedicated to offering tailored 24/7 services that meet the unique needs of each individual, ensuring the highest standard of care for those facing end-of-life challenges.

"Our mission is clear: We are committed to providing compassionate end-of-life support and delivering the highest standard of comfort care to all our patients," said medical director Dr. Nawabi. "Whether our patients are receiving care at home, in assisted living facilities, or nursing homes, we consistently offer the same level of compassionate, dignified, and respectful care."

Infinite Hospice offers comprehensive support services that are covered entirely by Medicare, Medical, and almost all private medical insurance programs. These services include at-home care, spiritual and social counseling, 24/7 nursing and physician services, as well as providing all the necessary equipment patients and their loved ones require. With a carefully selected team of top-notch doctors and professional, caring nurses, Infinite Hospice is prepared to go above and beyond to address the unique needs of each patient.

"We take pride in providing you and your family the best comfort care during these difficult times," Nawabi added.

Infinite Hospice specializes in home health aid and the seamless integration of all required

The graphic is a promotional image for Infinite Hospice. It features a photograph of a female hospice worker in blue scrubs sitting on a couch and talking to an elderly African American woman wearing a headscarf. The worker has her hand on the woman's shoulder. In the bottom right corner of the photo are two circular gold seals: one for "20 YEARS" and another for "ACCREDITED". Below the photo, the text "INFINITE HOSPICE" is written in teal, with an infinity symbol above it. Underneath that is "SERVING SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA" in bold teal, followed by the question "Is your loved one in need of 24/7 hospice care?" in a smaller font. A teal button with the text "Call today!" and the phone number "(818)745-7659" is positioned below the text. To the right of the button are three dark blue dots and a large teal arc at the bottom right.
