India Shopping is a Diverse Experience

NEW DELHI, DELHI, INDIA, September 14, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- India has really burst onto the global scene as never before, with the Global G20 meeting successfully concluding in Delhi, which quickly followed the landing of an Indian spacecraft , the Chandrayan, on the moon.

India is an exciting country. It is an amalgamation of several cultures with varied ethnic crafts, clothing, languages & food. It is not a uniform and homogenous experience when you step into India . The tapestry of temple architecture in South India & the Mughal architecture in North India are completely distinct & diverse. So are the people -the way they dress and the food they eat . The beauty of India lies in its complex history & its peoples. It is a qualitatively different experience.
