

Iranian Americans to Mark Anniversary of 2022 Nationwide Protests with Call for Justice and Accountability

Campaign in NYC will protest the expected presence of Ebrahim Raisi at the UNGA & express support for Iranian people uprising for a democratic & free republic.

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, September 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Coinciding with the 78th Annual Session of the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA), thousands of Iranian Americans will convene for a major rally to mark the first anniversary of the nationwide uprisings that began in Iran in September 2022. The week-long campaign will also protest the expected presence of Iranian regime president Ebrahim Raisi at the UNGA and express support for the ongoing uprisings of the Iranian people for a democratic and free republic.

Influential personalities and public figures will address the rally, showing their solidarity with the Iranian people.

Daily events near the United Nations will highlight Raisi's involvement in the 1988 massacre of 30,000 political prisoners, the killing of protesters in 2018, 2019, and 2022, and the ongoing
