welcomed Alejandro Reyes to the firm as part of its continuing plan to expand its best-in-class services to meet the evolving needs of today's clients.

Reyes will lead the organization's Business Risk Consulting project teams in helping clients identify, understand and manage operational risks. The teams will provide clients with the capacity to develop or improve decision frameworks and internal controls by addressing hazards, identifying risk capital investment opportunities and fitting appropriate solution structures.

“Today's businesses are under a lot of pressure. Inflation is rising. Margins are tight. Companies are looking for ways to reduce costs,” said Kip Irle, Global M&A and Transaction Solutions Leader. “As part of our team, Alejandro will bring the processes, tools and knowledge to help our clients convert risk management into competitive advantage.”

Reyes has more than 10 years of domestic and international insurance and risk consultancy experience, having worked previously with large clients as part of brokerage, carrier and business consulting firms. His background includes a focus on risk transfer optimization, enterprise risk management and alternative risk transfer, including captives and structure portfolio solutions.
