

Aleutian Airways Welcomes Homer Native, Ashley Appel, as Station Manager

Scheduled service begins Tuesday, September 19

ANCHORAGE, ALASKA, UNITED STATES, September 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sterling Airways dba Aleutian Airways is delighted to welcome Ashley Appel as the new Station Manager for Homer, Alaska, operations. Appel brings a wealth of experience and strong Alaskan ties, making her a valuable addition to the team.

Aleutian Airways has greatly impressed me by making their guests the primary focus, and I'm honored to have this opportunity to take care of the community that I grew up in.”

Ashley Appel, Homer Station Manager

Appel, a native of Homer, Alaska, is a seasoned aviation professional with a strong commitment to her community. Her journey into the world of aviation started at a fixed base operator in Arizona, before returning to Alaska, to embark on a career with a regional airline in Kenai. After a brief hiatus from the aviation industry, she is thrilled to rejoin the field, bringing with her over five years of diverse aviation experience, complemented by her prior managerial roles.

“Aleutian Airways has greatly impressed me by making their guests the primary focus, and I'm honored to have this opportunity to take care of the community that I grew up in,” said Appel. “I am confident our team will be a strong asset to our town.”

Having received the all-clear on operations, Aleutian Airways will commence flights between Homer and Anchorage on September 19, via Saab 2000 aircraft. With daily flights, the airline aims to enhance connectivity, convenience, and accessibility for the local community. Aleutian Airways invites future guests to join them at Homer Airport, at 7:40 am, to welcome the inaugural flight. Cake and refreshments will be served.

Tickets for Aleutian Airways' Homer flights can be purchased conveniently through www.flyaleutian.com, or through a local travel agent.
