

SON OF A CHIEF ASSASSIN BRUCE H. BELL WRITES A BOOK THAT HAS EVERY HISTORY BUFF BOUNCING OFF THE WALLS

*Author Bruce H. Bell enthralls readers about JFK's assassination in his book My Father Killed President John F. Kennedy

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, September 13, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- On November 22, 1963, President John F. Kennedy was assassinated during a motorcade in Dallas, Texas. Who has done it? Bruce H. Bell answers the question in his book "My Father Killed President John F. Kennedy."

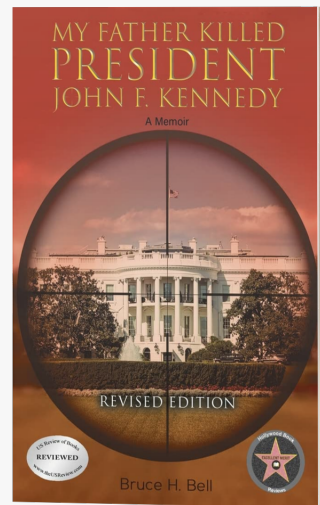

A deeply personal novel, "My Father Killed President John F. Kennedy" takes storytelling to a whole new level, as it goes back to one of the most shocking events in the United States, through the lens of a child.

Amazon customer, Hamza, says, "This is definitely a highly captivating book that takes you deep into the actual events that took place around the Kennedy Assassination. The writer has put a great deal of effort ensuring all the details are accurate."

"My Father Killed President John F. Kennedy" evokes empathy as well as sympathy, with the author being a child when everything happened. Truly a story of a lifetime.

Bruce H. Bell was only nine to thirteen years old when he had to miss two to three school days a week to be around his father's peer gatherings of the assassination planners. He would be sitting in restaurants, conference rooms, and hotel suites just hearing how JFK is a threat to the United States. He now writes to connect with others as well as to his younger self.
