The William Penn Foundation; Bader Philanthropies, Inc.; and the Wawa Foundation have all provided generous support to Skyrocket. This is through grants awarded for the purpose of furthering the company's educational mission of providing significant support to urban school leaders throughout Philadelphia and Milwaukee.

The William Penn Foundation trusts Skyrocket to assist in achieving its goal of enhancing the vitality and vibrancy of the Greater Philadelphia region through increasing high-quality educational opportunities for economically disadvantaged students. To do this, Skyrocket will provide literacy and curriculum support to a network of independent schools in Philadelphia.

The two grants issued to Skyrocket through Bader Philanthropies, Inc. will support Skyrocket's in-school coaching, as well as Skyrocket's one-day workshop titled "Recharge Your School Culture," both for principals leading schools in Milwaukee's 53212 zip code.

The Wawa Foundation awarded Skyrocket its grant to help further its commitment to supporting the heroes making a difference every day by enhancing the education and mentoring of at-risk youth in grades K-12 in Philadelphia.
