About JustCordell

Breeding, who served in the US Marine Corps for four years, struggled with PTSD and anger management issues.

This resulted in a difficult period lasting two years, which involved multiple arrests and a broken family. JustCordell, who grew up a "Church Boy", encountered the God he could not find in the pew during this time of adversity. During the time of restoration, JustCordell decided to give his gifts back to God and has remained dedicated to music ever since, making it his first love. The Alabama 2018 Gospel Artist of the year, has been linked to tours including Prison Fellowship and Hydrate School Campus tours. Collaborating with diverse artists has transformed him into a symbol of multiculturalism. In December of this year, the Black Men Rock Image Awards Scholarship Foundation, Inc. will be honoring him. When asked about his inspiration, he responded that he wants to see Christ take back the airwaves of this generation and for everything that has breath to praise the Lord.
