Georgia Senator Bo Hatchett answered that call issuing a statement on his social media that he would file a complaint with the Prosecuting Attorneys Qualifications Commission (PAQC) on day one. <https://www.facebook.com/HatchettforGeorgia>

In response to the willingness of Senator Hatchett , an attorney , to file a complaint with the Prosecuting Attorneys Qualifications Commission (PAQC) and create a push for oversight the Georgia State Chapter of Veterans for America First has issued an endorsement of the senator for his re-election campaign and the national board is currently considering same after a review.

Hatchett was born in St. Petersburg, Florida in 1989 to Thomas and Nora Hatchett. He graduated from Habersham Central High School, lettering four years in swimming and playing varsity football for three years as a quarterback. He played football for Presbyterian College for two years before transferring to Georgia Tech to pursue swimming, where he swam for three seasons and served as a team captain his last two years. He graduated from Georgia Tech in

2013 with a Bachelor of Science in Biology. He later graduated with a Juris Doctor from the University of Georgia School of Law in 2017, serving as a legal intern in Governor Nathan Deal's Office of the Executive Counsel while in school

Hatchett was first elected to the Georgia Senate in 2020, winning the Republican nomination in a runoff by 37 votes with 50.07% of the total vote and winning the general election with 83.18% of the vote. He was appointed to be one of Governor Brian Kemp's floor leaders during the 2021-2022 session of the General Assembly. After winning reelection in 2022 with 84.78% of the vote, he was reappointed by Governor Kemp to be one of his floor leaders for the 2023-2024 session. He serves on the Children & Families, Reapportionment & Redistricting, Agriculture & Consumer Affairs, Ethics, Health & Human Services, and Judiciary Committees in the Senate.

Outside of elected office, Hatchett is an attorney specializing in personal injury, medical malpractice, and product liability cases.
